John Schnurr Loses In Salem Twp. Balloting

Incumbent John Schnurr, Wilmet, lost in his bid to be re-elected to the Salem Township Board in the primary elections held Tuesday.

Voters were asked to choose four of seven candidates to be placed on the April 7 general election ballot. Schnurr, along with Aubrey (Nick) Nichols and Gilbert Elselder were eliminated.

WINNERS IN the balloting were Gilbert Haisma, Salem, with 131 votes; Neal J. Kiley, Trevor, 157 votes; Donald Klapper, Salem, 140 votes, and Lee Wilson, Salem, 127 votes.

Town Clerk Gerald Siebert reported only a light turnout of voters in the balloting. There were a total of 486 votes out of total registration of almost 1,900 for a 30.9 percent. There were 381 votes in the first precinct.

The campaigning had been quiet and only a questionnaire submitted by the Salem Township Subdivision Assn. on five property owner questions sparked the contests.

THUS THE TOWN board after the general election will be new except for chairman Earl Elfers. The other incumbent, Bill Cook, Camp Lake, chose not to run for the office again.

The balloting was as follows:

Candidate	Pct. 1	Pct. 2	Total
Kiley	128	29	157
Klapper	106	34	140
Haisma	98	33	131
Wilson	102	25	127
Schnurr	88	33	119
Elselder	74	25	99

Sen. Douglas Speaks Sun. At Fox Lake

Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D., Ill.) will be the principal speaker next Sunday, March 15, at the meeting of the Chain O' Lakes Democratic Club at the Lions clubhouse in Fox Lake. The public is invited.

Dick Kahn, Democratic candidate for state's attorney, will also be present to kick off his campaign for the special election June 23.

Douglas' tight schedule for the day will require that the meeting start promptly at 2 o'clock, according to Ralph G. Stanton, club president. The senator is to speak at 4 p. m. at Highland Park's celebration of its selection as the All American City.

The Chain O' Lakes club includes members from Antioch, Grant and Lake Villa Townships.

Lindenhurst May Need Tax Anticipation Warrants In Fall Due To Late Bills

Lindenhurst, like some other Lake County towns, may have to issue tax anticipation warrants this fall because money which should be coming in from taxes will not have been billed.

That was the opinion of Craig Henderson, finance committee chairman of the village board who reviewed the financial picture of the village at Monday night's board meeting.

THE MONEY usually coming in from taxes has been held up in the county courthouse due to the tremendous number of tax valuation protests—most of which were from Lake Villa township and 200 from Lindenhurst. Henderson told the board that he had been informed that the bills would not be sent out for this year until about December and that money would not be coming in before March.

The financial statement of the village after Monday's meeting and paying of bills showed that the general fund slipped to $400. Henderson noted that a check for $1,250 from motor fuel tax funds should be on the way from the state to pay for snow removal for January and February. The board voted to pay the entire bill of $985 by taking $300 from the general fund and making up the rest from the motor fuel tax check. The remaining $580 will be held to pay for March's and some of next winter's snow removal.

ECONOMY WAS the watchword of the board during the entire meeting as the trustees reviewed the need for five new policemen this summer and agreed to have the police chief find five men for the volunteer force. Attempts will be made to find the money to put the men on the force, the board vowed.

It was estimated that it costs $60-$100 each to put men on duty, but John Slove, police commissioner, noted that the additional services it would provide would be well worth

Not Enough Information To Vote On City Plan For Salem; Haste Urged

Further discussion of the plan to make Salem Township a city will come under the light Thursday night at the regular town meeting.

Advantages and disadvantages were outlined last Friday at a discussion at the Trevor School before about 100 residents. The citizens came away more informed about the plan but all agreed not enough information is at hand to call for a referendum on the issue.

THOUGH TOWNSHIP officials are taking a neutral stand on the proposals, Chairman Earl Elfers took an enthusiastic positive position.

The advantages Schnurr noted were the greater amount of money which would come to a city from taxes to state and federal bodies; much better representation on the county board and even better local representation on the city board; it would provide for more uniform development of the area in fairness to all and would protect the area from encroachment by other governmental units, especially the proposed metropolitan districts such as that of Milwaukee.

One of the biggest problems that will face the proposed city would be sanitation, especially uniform sanitation. However, Elfers said, this is a problem that will face the township whether it incorporates or not. "We will be a city in area and size whether we like it or not," he said.

MORE MONEY would have to be spent in administration and a city hall would have to be built if a city status were achieved, Elfers added.

One of the bright spots was the notation that county and state roads will remain under their present administration and upkeep, Elfers said. A suggestion by Mrs. Florence Dexter, Trevor postmistress, that perhaps individual villages would be better than a 34 square mile city also received comment by those attending.

Moves are afoot to seriously consider incorporating several population centers of the township as villages. Notably mentioned has been Trevor-Rock Lake, and Paddock Lake Dells.

It was noted that villages must have 150 residents in not more than a half square mile in order to incorporate.

OTHER AREAS of Wisconsin have incorporated as fourth class cities to protect themselves and Al Paddock, town treasurer, reported he would attempt to secure officials of at least one of these cities to outline

Lindenhurst Auto Decals On Sale

Auto stickers for residents of Lindenhurst went on sale early this week to give buyers a longer period to purchase the stickers and avoid last minute rush.

THE STICKERS, available during office hours from Clerk Mrs. Rae Gibbons, are $5.

Deadline for affixing the decals will remain May 1, the village board decided at its meeting Monday night. Originally the stickers were to first be sold April 1.

Citizen Group Suggests 'Brick-By-Brick' Plan For Countryside Hospital

Though money still can't be collected, plans are under way for a lakes region collection campaign conducted by citizens interested in the proposed Countryside Hospital to serve the area.

Holding up all calls for money is final U. S. Treasury Dept. approval of the constitution of the hospital expected to be received this week. But when it is final, a Lake Villa woman hopes her plans for a house-to-house, brick-by-brick collection campaign can begin.

THE ENTHUSIASTIC supporter is Mrs. Edward M. Rundgren who talked about the idea to friends, PTA meetings and other gatherings. All the people liked the idea, vowed support and pushed her into the chairman's seat.

"My idea stems from the fact that most people are not able to afford $100 memberships, but if given a chance to contribute something so they could feel a part of the hospital, they would do so," Mrs. Rundgren says.

Her idea is to print certificates worth $1 per brick which would be sold on a house-to-house basis. The plan has met with support from all, she says.

THIS IS THE first citizen's group which has come to support of the proposed half million dollar hospital.

Mrs. Rundgren has talked to George Heuer, president of the hospital association about the plan and he has given it his personal approval. However, he has cautioned Mrs. Rundgren and her friends to use careful accounting methods and to not begin collections until treasury dept. approval is received.

In the meantime, she will be formulating her campaign and has put out a call for people who wish to volunteer additional ideas or their services. Her phone number is EL-liot 6-7384.

MEANWHILE, THE hospital plan was picking up much support with groups in the Fox Lake area. The Fox Lake fire department has pledged $1,000 to purchase a membership and hopes that will serve as an ice breaker for other organizations.

A meeting is scheduled for March 22 in the Legion Home in Fox Lake for all groups in that area. A spokesman for the sponsors of the meeting said that it would be open to all groups or individuals, especially from Antioch area which has remained somewhat silent on the hospital plan.

Dr. C. P. Midgley, vice-president of the hospital association, reported that next moves of the group would be outlined at a board meeting next Sunday. Mayors of towns in the area will be contacted next to find about support from their areas. The mayor of Round Lake is "very happy" with the planning and the association expects much support from him, Dr. Midgley said.

Nothing definite has been agreed upon as a site for the proposed, 25-bed hospital but groups working on this phase of the project have an eye on property near Fox Lake Hills which they feel will be ideal.

They hope to come to some agreement as to availability and price, next week.

Board Holds $956 Water Bill Owed By Swimming Pool

What to do about a $956 water bill for the Antioch Aqua Center now past due caused Antioch village officials to scratch their heads in puzzlement at last week's board meeting.

Appearing to ask the board to forget the bill were Robert Jensen and Irving Carey, members of the Lions Club, Community Service Corp., operators of the swimming pool.

BUT ALTHOUGH all members agreed that the pool is good for the community, they felt that it might not be legal or moral to give the water to the pool.

Trustee Ernest Glenn noted that it would be folly to talk about raising the water rates, then give water away to one organization. He felt also that if water was given to the swimming pool, the village would be obligated to give water to churches and schools.

Carey noted that the pool eventually would be given to the village when the revenue bonds sold for its construction were paid off.

The board moved to table the knotty matter in hopes a solution could be worked out and presented to the board meeting soon.

Mrs. N. C. Jensen Quietly Marks 97th Birthday

One of Antioch's oldest residents, Mrs. N. C. Jensen, 324 Park Ave., observed another milestone, her 97th birthday here Feb. 25.

Many friends stopped by to visit and brought cards, flowers, candy, cake and homemade jellies to wish her a happy birthday.

Mrs. Jensen is still able to be "up and doing" and enjoys taking care of her plants and her home. She has lived in Antioch for 38 years.

DEAR READER News EditorialsEstimating: A Game Where at Times It's Costly to Be a 'Middle of Roader'

Almost as popular as the underestimate is the overestimate. And one is as tragic as the other.

Much can be said about the folly of making an estimate when actually a range would be much preferred. But there are times when an estimate is needed such as:

Estimating your annual income as opposed to your expenses;
Estimating how big the high school will be three years hence;
Estimating the number of patients a hospital will admit two years from now.

The list could go on ad infinitum. But any way you look at it, errors can be made easily in estimating.

We like to underestimate our income and overestimate our expenses; in other words, be on the safe side by being conservative on income, liberal on expenses; sometimes the picture doesn't look too bright this way, but in the end usually we are not too surprised.

Two local groups are seriously entering the game of "guess-timating" and underestimates may hold serious trouble for residents—and may cost them more money.

The Antioch High School board is basing its request for money for a new school on estimates of enrollment three and four years from now. It admits that this estimate is low—rock bottom. It admits that the figures used covers only students now in school.

Once before in this decade the school board made a similar estimate and ultimate figures proved that the guess was quite low. And that's one of the reasons we're now having to go through it all again.

The proposed Countryside Hospital also has come out with an estimate of needs. It says a 25-bed hospital is the absolute minimum we need at present.

But surveys by a group of doctors and by The Antioch News have shown that a minimum of 52 persons from this area are admitted to hospitals in the area every three days. And just last week a doctor questioned the wisdom of not planning right from the start for at least a 50-bed hospital.

We seriously wonder if estimators are not committing a sin of omission in ignoring some facts in making their plans. Especially in the case of buildings where construction is so costly, is it not highly important to use the higher estimate when planning for the future?

Certainly it is easier to "sell" the public on a lower than a higher figure, but is it easier to "sell" this same public on two projects than one?

We would greatly urge planners to carefully consider every fact that could cause their lowest estimate to go out of whack than to revert to the same problem often because the estimate was too far off.

The parents of a teen-age boy these days know exactly where he is at all times. He's in the family car. The only trouble is that they don't know where the car is.

Stray Cart Sets New Distance Record

A new long distance record for carting away supermarket shopping carts may have been set, reports Ollie Lundahl, manager of Antioch's Jewel store.

A resident of Wisconsin called to report one of Jewel's shopping baskets near her place at the Illinois-Wisconsin line. The place is more than two miles north of the store.

A store employee was dispatched to bring back the stray glider which must have been a long push for someone.

Letters on your opinions are welcomed to this space each week. Equal weight is given on this page to your ideas and the paper's ideas on subject matter. Letters must be signed with complete names and addresses but will be withheld upon request. No letter should exceed 300 words.

I am in complete agreement with your suggestion to eliminate angle parking on Main St., even with the loss of 11 meters. More space will be gained through the center of the street.

But what is the speed limit on Main St. and Lake St.? Did you ever try to cross the street even within the yellow spaces marked for crossing? It's as much as your

And on Lake St., where a STOP sign is, about four out of five cars just slow down, and make the turn, not coming to a dead stop as required by traffic laws.

Here and There

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Heinen of Hillside Drive have two things to be thankful for this week. First and most important, their daughter, Mrs. Phil Carlson of Mundelein, Ill., presented them with a brand new 8-pound granddaughter on March 4, and second, they have a new blue Chevrolet.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Mongeau of Lincoln Drive purchased the Drive-in Restaurant, on Route 12 just north of the Jewel Tea Co. Marie Mongeau and her father will operate it. They plan to stay open from 6 a. m. to midnight at present, but they will be open later during the summer season. The children in this vicinity will remember Art—he's the Good Humor man who supplied them with ice cream bars all summer.

Frank Alex, Jr., who so ably policed Community beach house this winter wishes to thank all of his neighbors, teachers and fellow students for their inquiries about his progress at St. Therese's Hospital after his accident on March 1. He is at home now and well on his way to complete recovery.

Mrs. Louis Geistlinger of Grand Avenue is home and recovering from the oral surgery done at the Passavant Hospital last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Watkins of Grant Drive are the proud parents of a baby girl born on March 3.

Al and Mary Berg celebrated their 9th wedding anniversary recently.

Navy personnel served at seven science stations which were built by Navy Construction Battalions during Operations Deepfreeze I and II.

THE NAVY MEN, in some cases, spent more than a year in the Antarctic maintaining the stations for scientists while data was gathered on ionosphere, geomagnetism, meteorology, aurora, airglow, and other geophysical sciences.

Four of the seven stations will continue to operate during the IGY Year, with Navy task groups maintaining and resupplying the stations.

Kids Define Hard Words

Kids at the Channel Lake School have their own definitions for some particularly sticky words, the Community Club Bulletin reports.

These are some from the fourth grade:

Fryers—fryers fry the foods, like birds.

Pasteurize—on a farm the cows go out to pasture.

Boundary—boundary is a place where they make milk.

Creamery—creamery is something like half and half.

Rotation—rotation is a machine that goes round and round and picks up things. Also, the hogs in the elevator go round in rotation.

Poultry—a hen that lays eggs.

What do we mean by Ford "DOUBLE VALUE"?

1. It can mean the beginning of a whole new life... in a car especially built for people! Everywhere, the 59 Ford is recognized as the World's Most Beautifully Proportioned Car. Yet many people are just now discovering that Ford is beautifully proportioned inside as well as out.

2. All of your passengers—including the "man in the middle"—get a full-cushioned ride, full head room, full leg room.

Every seat has full-depth springing and cushioning in a Ford. And all seats are high enough so you and all your passengers sit normally, ride relaxed and comfortably!

3. You and everyone who rides with you can keep hats on... can enter and leave with ease. Ford door openings are extra wide. And front doors stay open when you want them to, thanks to Ford's exclusive 2-stage door checks.

4. You get a full-sized roof which shades all passengers from the sun. You get a full-sized, easy-to-reach trunk, too! Everyone has a roof over his head in a Ford. And there's no need to stand on tiptoe to load Ford's trunk!

5. It can mean tremendous savings—right from the start. Because Ford is built for savings, too! Check the price tag, you'll see! Ford is priced lowest of the most popular three. And that's just the beginning of Ford savings.

6. You can expect to save as much as $1 on every tank of gas... go more miles between oil changes!

Whether you choose a Six or Thunderbird V-8, both standard Ford engines thrive on "regular" gas—saving you up to a dollar a tankful. And with Ford's standard full-flow oil filtration, you save on oil changes, too.

7. You can forget about waxing the Diamond Lustre Finish. It'll never need it!

While many cars offer finishes which need waxing frequently, Ford's brand-new Diamond Lustre brings you a true no-wax finish.

8. And you can expect Ford's new aluminum muffler to last twice as long!

Why not get the full Ford savings story this week. Once you do—and hear our double-value deal—we bet you, too, will want to join the big swing to the 59 Ford.

Council Girl Scouts Pay Tribute to Founder of Movement With Displays

Girl scouts of this area are scheduling observances to pay tribute to Juliette Low, founder of the girl scouts 47 years ago today.

Mrs. Anders Nordling of Lake Villa and Mrs. A. H. Kaufmann of Antioch have been active with the Lakeside Council since 1947 and will help direct exhibits of crafts, camping and many other phases of what the Girl Scouts have learned and accomplished during the past year. Displays are set up in schools, banks, stores in the council area. The area includes Antioch, Lake Villa, Fox Lake, Gages Lake, Grayslake, and Round Lake.

THE GIRL SCOUTS were founded by Mrs. Low for a handful of girls in Savannah, Ga., in 1912. She was handicapped and past the age of 50 but felt that girls should have opportunities to learn basic lessons of citizenship and learn to serve and help others at all times.

pros and cons at a future meeting. However, any meeting must be held soon, Elfers said, for a bill is expected to be before the legislature soon to call for elimination of all future fourth class cities. If Salem can have a referendum on the proposal soon, and if it should pass, then city status could be achieved even if the legislature bill should become law.

A committee was appointed to organize facts and line up qualified persons for a big public meeting which will be held within the next two weeks. Besides officials of other fourth class cities, a representative of the state planning commission will be asked to appear. It is expected opponents of the plan will have their facts marshalled and ready for presentation at that time also.

Most officials have promised to keep The Antioch News informed of developments in this issue where so much information is needed by the residents.

OUR OPENING

Come on to Mary's this week-end — buy a complete Prime Rib dinner for only 95c. The dinner includes soup or tomato juice, salad, potatoes, vegetable, beverage and dessert. Also, with every dinner — this special or any other dinner — we will give a free loaf of home made bread. Free drawing too.

We at Mary's want you to see our "all new" restaurant. We know you'll like the atmosphere: The palm leaf matted and mahogany base walls; the big color wall photograph prints of Cypress Gardens, the Oregon Coastline, and snow on a mountain trail in the Rockies. Maybe you've been to one of those places.

We're sure you'll like the new stools, tables and booths.

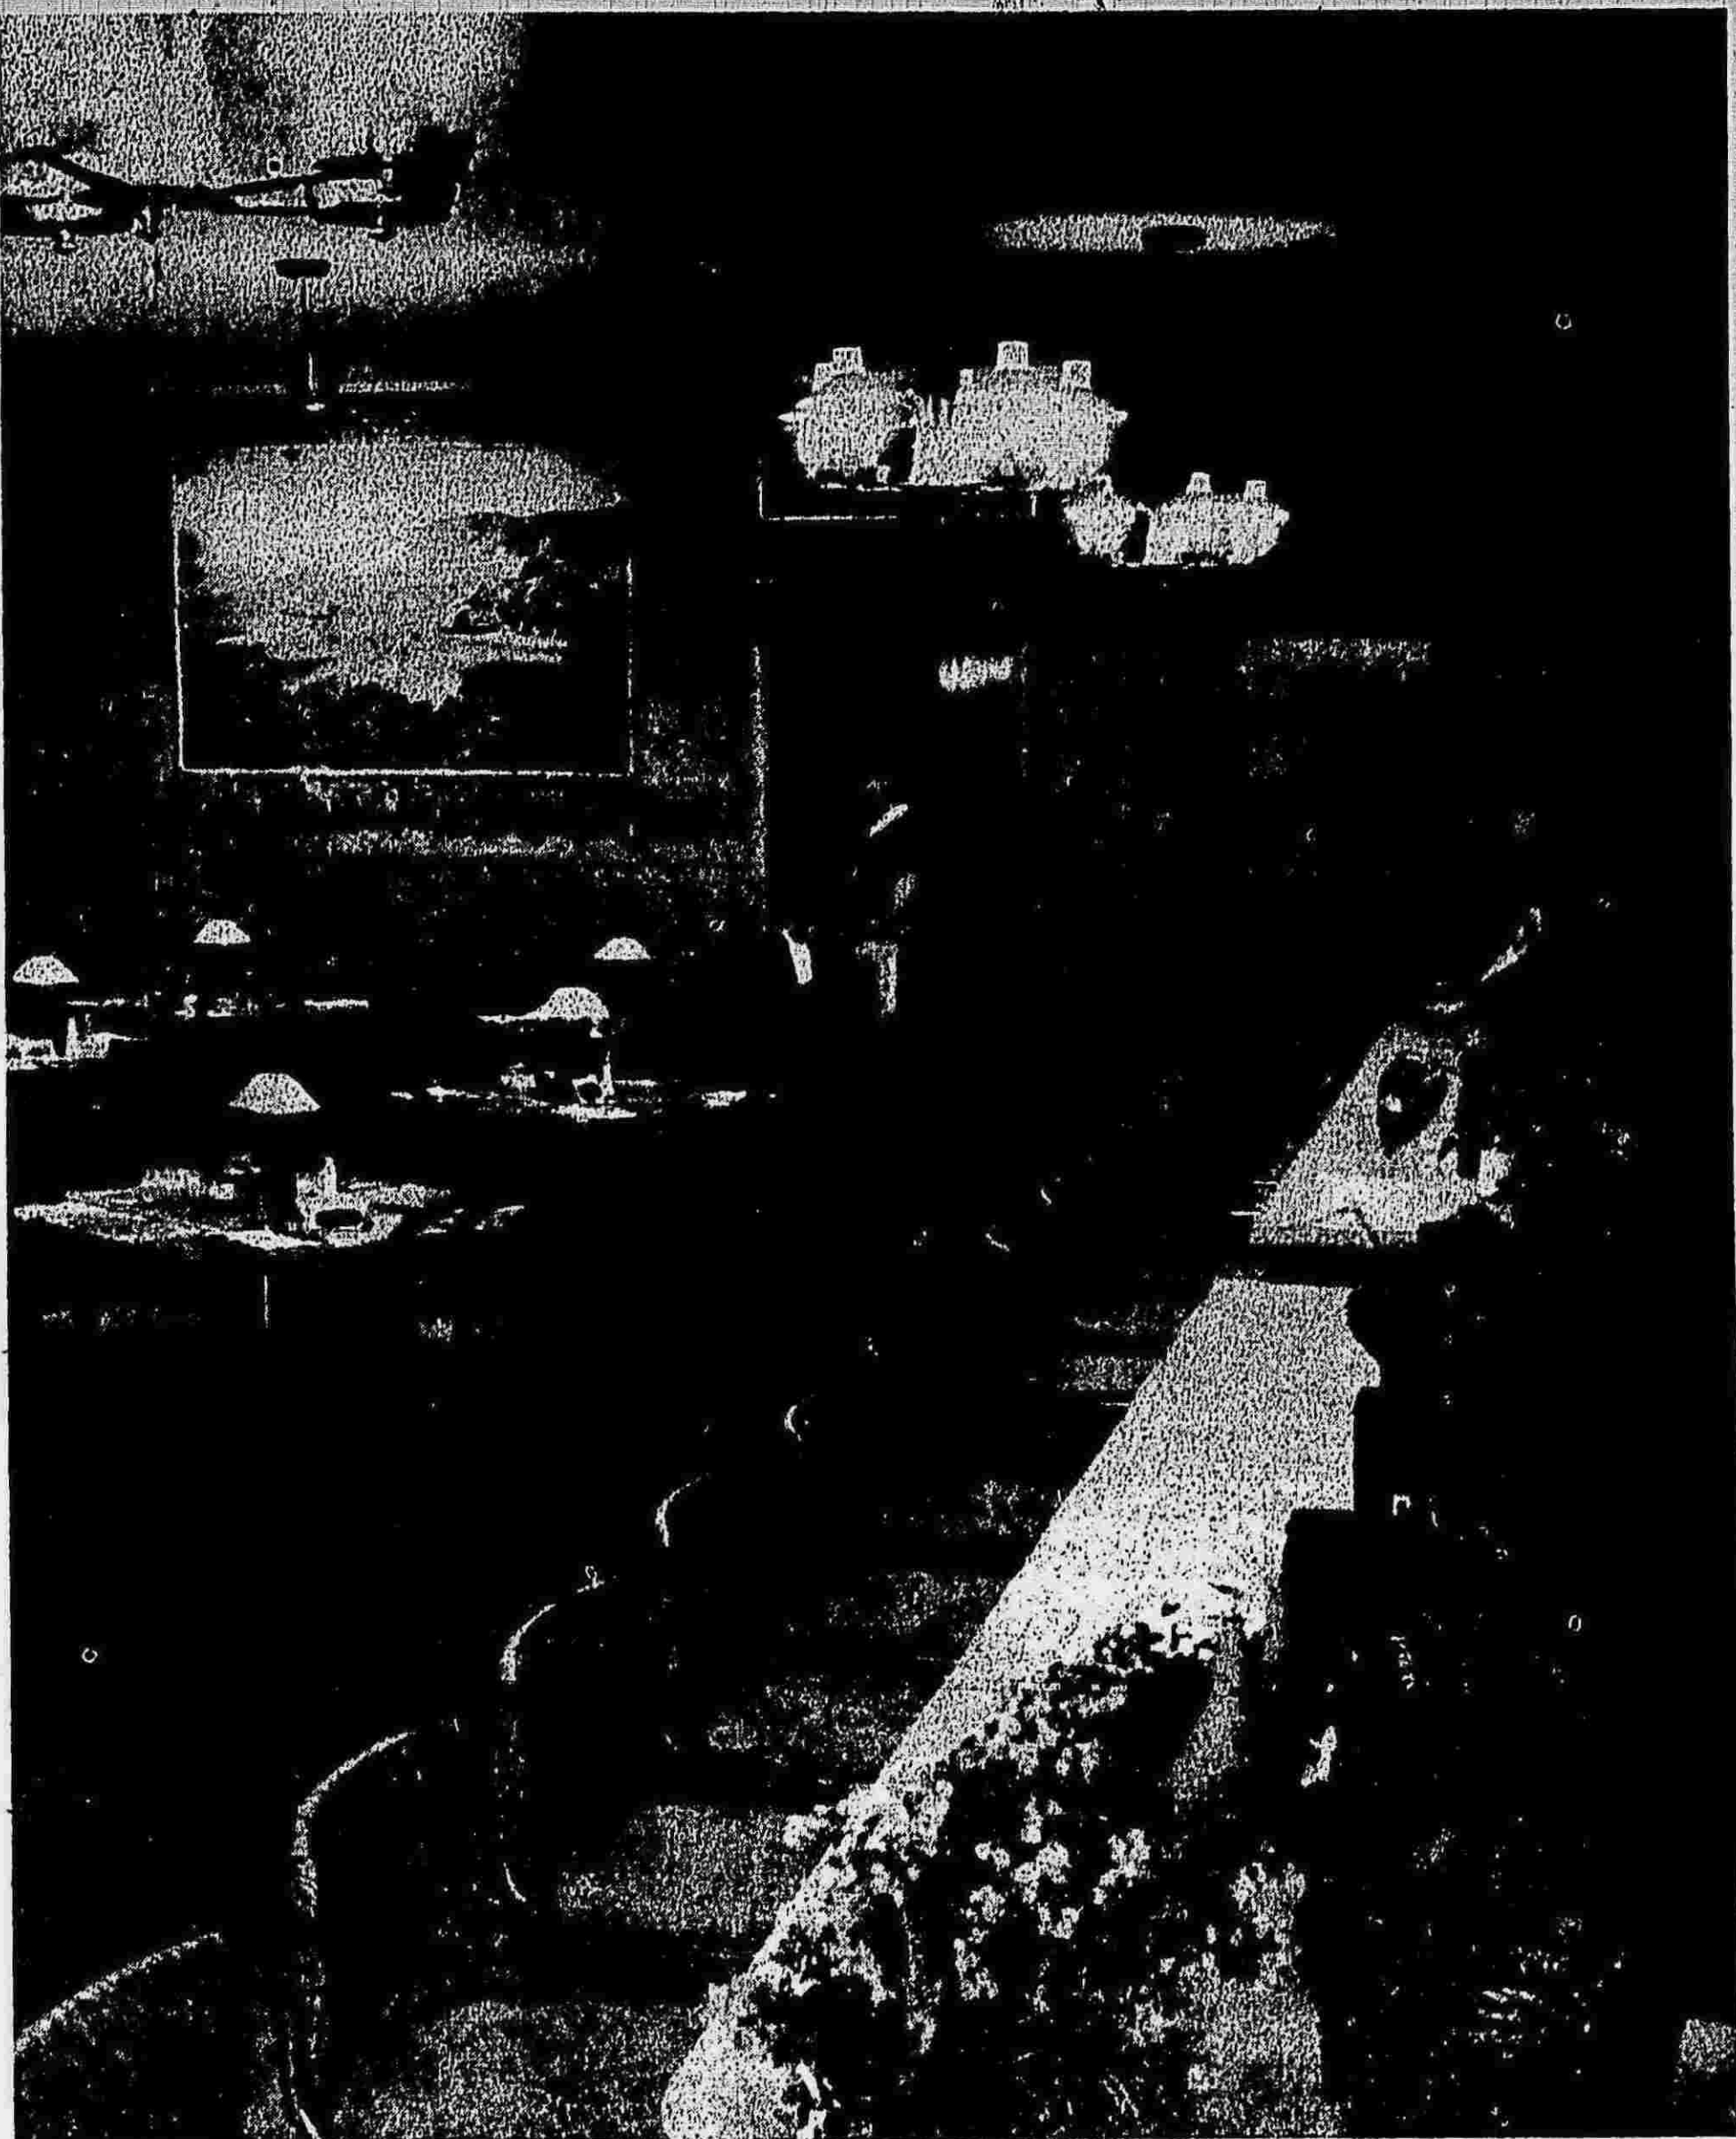

But most of all, our service is faster and our food is better than ever. Why? Because we have new kitchen equipment, including a charcoal broiler, and a more efficient set up. Even the waitresses will have new uniforms — a beautiful dark green.

Those who remodeled our restaurant — Cal Harden of Antioch, Flexotile of Kenosha and Lake's Tile of Antioch — did a good job.

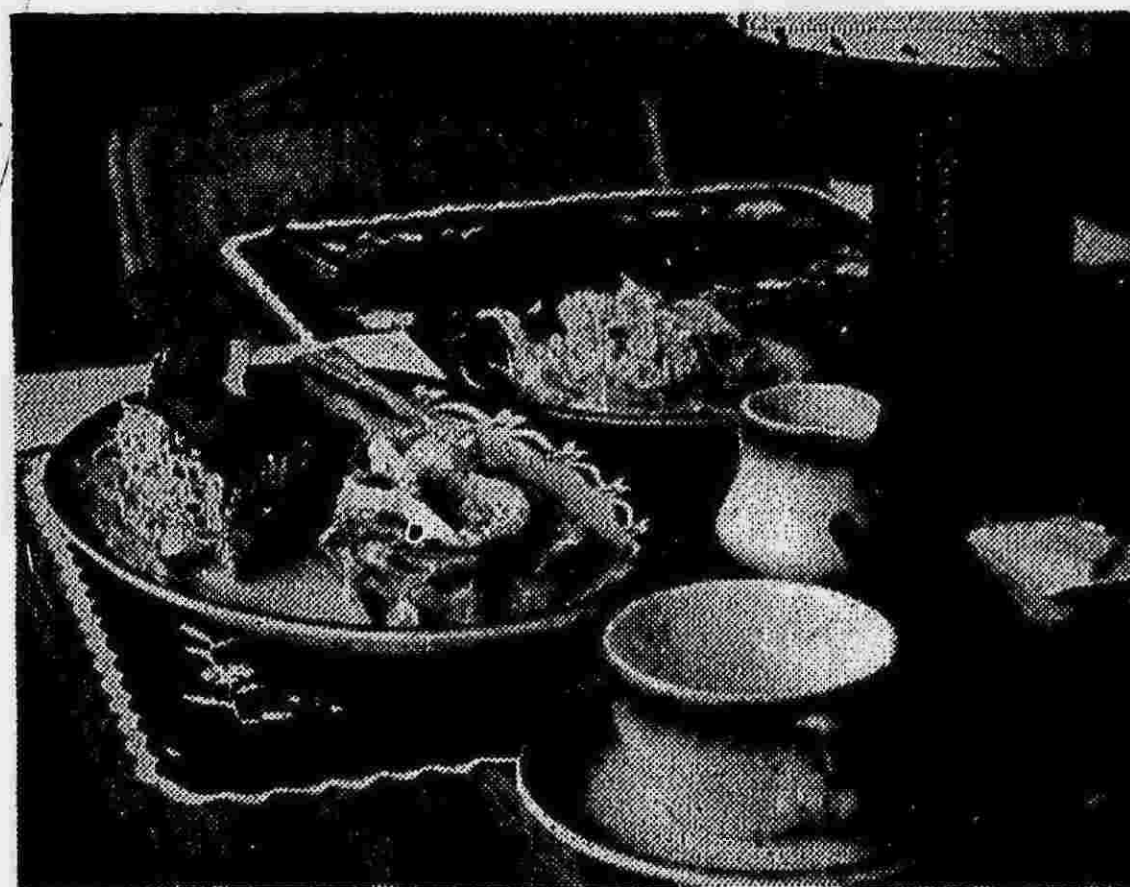

You'll like Mary's "new" restaurant when you come in for our special Prime Rib dinner for 95c and a loaf of home made bread this Saturday or Sunday.

See you!

TENDERLY DONE

Enjoy eating thick tasty Charcoal Broiled T-Bones

Always charred around the edges just enough to give it real flavor — an outdoor, mouth-watering flavor.

This is steak at its best. Large, thick, tantalizing U.S. choice cuts — T-Bone, Sirloin or Butt — that are slightly charred around the edges. The way these steaks are prepared gives them that "cooked-in-the-outdoors" flavor.

The T-Bone ($3.75), Sirloin ($2.50) and Butt Steaks ($1.95) are all served with a baked potato, with butter, onion rings, salad and home made bread.

Or, if you don't like steaks, try charcoal broiled lamb or pork chops! They are served with all the trimmings for $2.25 and $1.65 respectively.

There are other food preparations you might like — Chicken-in-the-Basket, Broasted Chicken, Sandwiches of all kinds, Seafoods, Roast Sirloin, Breaded Veal Cutlets, Mushroom Steaks and many more.

Be sure to give Mary's a try if you want a REAL treat.

6 from AHS Win State Scholarship Awards; Percentage, Number High

Antioch High School students came out very well in comparison with other Lake County high schools in the Illinois State Scholarship competition with six students being named as finalists.

The number here is perhaps a greater percentage than any other high school and compares well even in numbers, says Frank Denison, guidance counselor at the high school. Only Barrington, Highland Park, Lake Bluff, Libertyville and Waukegan had a greater number than Antioch receive the awards.

WINNERS FROM Antioch are: Walter Aschenbrenner, Rt. 2, Box 65; Bryan Cain, 672 No. Main St.; Alan T. Moorman, 286 Ida Ave.; Cleon Schley, Rt. 2; and Carolyn Stoffel, Rt. 4. Also James Quinn, Box 218, Lake Villa, is an Antioch High School student. Kathleen Cranley, Rt. 2, Box 300, Antioch, was a winner also, but attends a Catholic school in Waukegan.

The local winners were chosen from a list of 3,718 semi-finalists and formed a part of 2,998 finalists. This is the second group of students to receive the award since 1957. About half of the winners will receive financial assistance while attending college. Depending on financial need, stipends cover tuition and fees not to exceed $800. The remainder will be honorary scholarships.

Winners must inform the State Scholarship Commission of their acceptance of the scholarship by May 10, Gov. Stratton said in announcing the awards.

AT PRESENT 70 per cent of the new winners plan to attend private schools in Illinois while 30 per cent favor state institutions. All fields of study will be represented.

Of the 1958 winners, there are 1,426 enrolled in 68 Illinois colleges and universities with about 50 per cent working in science and engineering.

Another set of examinations will be given in the fall of this year and a like number of scholarships will be awarded. Mrs. William C. Petty, wife of the Lake County Superintendent of Schools, is a member of the State Scholarship Commission.

Number of winners from other Lake County towns are as follows: Barrington—12; Fox Lake—1; Grayslake—4; Gurnee—1; Highland Park—13; Ingleside—1; Lake Bluff—7; Lake Forest—5; Lake Zurich—4; Libertyville—10; North Chicago—3; Round Lake—2; Waukegan—1; Winthrop Harbor—3; Zion 2. In addition, Richmond had one winner, Nancy Vogel, Rt. 2.

Alaska 'Ice Box' Proves To Be Huge Treasure Chest For U. S.

Alaska, once ridiculed as "Seward's Ice Box," has turned out to be stocked with more goodies than snowballs and polar bears.

When Secretary of State William Seward bought Alaska from Russia for $7,200,000 in 1867, many American taxpayers and senators denounced it as an icy wasteland. But the new state has paid back its cost hundreds of times in the value of its resources.

ALASKA'S ANNUAL production now amounts to approximately 160 million dollars—more than 21 times the purchase price of the territory.

The waters off Alaska's shores are the world's richest in salmon and halibut. Forests cover 375,000 square miles—an area twice as large as the four Scandinavian countries. Oil was discovered in commercial quantities in 1957.

Only two per cent of Alaska's 586,400 square miles has been surveyed. But 31 of the 33 strategic minerals needed by the U. S. already have been found there.

Here is the approximate annual production record:

Fish	$ 83,000,000
Timber	34,000,000
Minerals	24,000,000
Furs	7,000,000
Total	$158,000,000

Diminishing Numbers

Out of each 100 youngsters entering school, 80 finish grade school, 54 finish high school, and 8 complete a 4 year college course.

The average check-up runs into a hold-up, it seems.

The word "laundry", as used in this Ordinance shall also be held to include any establishment wherein washing machine units are available for use by the general public upon the deposit of a coin or a payment of a fee to the operator of such establishment or his agent.

SECTION 3: The application for such license shall be made in writing to the Village Clerk and shall truly state the name and address of the applicant, if an individual, or the names and residences of all members of the firm, if a co-partnership, or the names and residences of the principal officers, of a corporation, together with the location or proposed location for which such license is desired, and the maximum number of persons to be employed therein.

Within ten (10) days after the receipt of such application it shall be the duty of the Health Officer to cause an investigation to be made of the premises named and described in such application, for the purpose of determining whether the sanitary conditions therein conform with the provisions of this Ordinance.

If the Health Officer shall be satisfied that the proposed laundry is in conformity with the provisions of this Ordinance, he shall transmit such application to the Mayor, together with his recommendation for the issuance of a license, whereupon the Mayor shall issue or cause to be issued to such applicant, upon payment to the Village Clerk of the license fee hereinafter provided, a license attested by the Village Clerk authorizing such applicant to establish, maintain, conduct or operate a laundry at the place designated in such application for and during the period of such license.

Every such license shall expire on the 30th day of April following the date of its issuance.

SECTION 5: Every room or place used as a laundry, or for the storage of unlaundered or laundered fabrics in connection therewith, shall at all times be kept in good repair and maintained in a clean and sanitary condition as to floors, walls, ceilings, windows, woodwork, machinery, utensils, and fixtures, and every such room or place shall be kept free from rats, mice, and vermin, and all matters of an infectious or contagious nature.

SECTION 8: No person, firm or corporation owning, maintaining, conducting, or operating any laundry in which wearing apparel, household linens, towels, bedding and all other fabrics are received and treated through the process of washing, shall remove or cause to be removed from such premises until the same has been thoroughly sterilized by keeping it in the washing machine, vat or other vessel provided for that purpose, until the water therein has been brought to a boiling temperature or maintained at a temperature of 175 degrees F., for at least twenty (20) minutes; or by subjecting it to live steam pressure; or by keeping it in a drying house, or drying chamber, in which the temperature is not less than 215 degrees F., for a period of not less than fifteen (15) minutes; or by passing it through any ironing machine where the ironing surface is at a temperature of not less than 225 degrees F., except silks and woolsens or other fabrics which would be injured by the foregoing processes, provided the same shall be treated with soap, bleach or any other standard disinfectant solution as shall be approved by the Health Officer.

SECTION 9: A qualified attendant or operator shall be present in every laundry at all times during the hours of operation of said laundry.

SECTION 10: It shall be the duty of the Health Officer, and he is hereby authorized and empowered to inspect or cause to be inspected, from time to time, all premises wherein laundries are conducted, for the purpose of ascertaining, whether the provisions of this Ordinance and all other Ordinances of the Village of Antioch and the laws of the State of Illinois, relative to the keeping and operating of laundries, are being complied with, and it shall be his duty to cause all such Ordinances and laws to be strictly enforced.

SECTION 13: If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this Ordinance is for any reason determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this Ordinance and the remaining provisions shall be and remain in full force and effect.

SECTION 14: This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication as provided by law.

LV Library Gets Picture Exhibit From State

The Lake Villa Township Library has received from the State Library at Springfield a new picture collection. These art prints, representing all schools of art from ancient to modern times, will be displayed in the library for about one month.

This collection entitled "From Egypt to America" includes many favorites such as Rembrandt's "Night Watch," Cezanne's "Still Life," Corot's "Studio," Dufy's "Polo" and da Vinci's "Mona Lisa." The prints can be borrowed for use in art appreciation programs given by women's clubs, churches, and other groups. The prints are mounted on heavy cardboard with eyelets provided for hanging.

Methodist Bishop To Report On African Tour

Bishop and Mrs. Charles W. Brashares will report to Northern Illinois Methodists on their recent trip to Africa at three Chicago-area meetings and a fourth in Oregon, Ill.

After dedicating the new Community Methodist Church at Lake Villa, the Illinois Methodist bishop and his wife spent a two-month period in Africa visiting Protestant mission stations during December, January, and February. They traveled over 25,000 miles to visit missions in Liberia, Ghana, Belgian Congo, Northern and Southern Rhodesia, South Africa and Kenya.

Bishop and Mrs. Brashares will speak at the following places: March 15, 3:30 p.m., First Methodist Church, 1630 Hinman, Evanston; March 15, 6:00 p.m., Gary Memorial Methodist Church, Main and Seminary Streets, Wheaton; March 16, 8 p.m., Trinity Methodist Church, 9848 So. Winchester Ave., Chicago; March 22, 7:30 p.m., Oregon Methodist Church, Oregon, Ill.

Methodists of Rock River Conference will contribute $5,000 as their first African project to erect part of a Christian village near Lodja, Belgian Congo. African ministers and their families will be moved into the special village to learn the Christian way of life, Bishop Brashares stated. After six months or a year, they will go back into the bush to preach and teach, letting others come to the village to learn. The 16 Illinois Methodist districts are each contributing $1,000 toward the project.

Summer Cottons Feature Of New Dress Shop Opening Today Here

A new dress shop featuring all summer apparel in light cotton lines will open here today at 845 Main St. The independent store is Lucille's Cotton Shop, owned by Lucille D'Abaldo, 156 Oakwood Dr., who has a background with Sears merchandising and more recently has been employed by Jewel Tea Co. The D'Abaldo's have lived in Antioch four years.

THE STORE has undergone extensive remodeling since Feb. 1 and will open with representative selections of the lines to be carried, Mrs. D'Abaldo says. All stocks have not been shipped yet but should be here within the next month. At that time a grand opening will be held, she said.

For this weekend opening, the shop will feature a housecoat special, advertised elsewhere in today's Antioch News.

'New' Restaurant Sets Opening On Weekend

Antioch has a "new" restaurant this weekend—Mary's Restaurant, at 914 Main St.

And to celebrate her official opening Friday and Saturday, March 13-14, of the "new" restaurant owner Mary Topercer is serving a special: A Prime Rib complete dinner giving a free loaf of home made bread to every person purchasing a dinner on those dates.

DURING THE PAST few weeks carpenter Cal Harden refinished the entire interior of the restaurant. The Flexotile Co. of Kenosha laid a new floor and Lakes Tile Co. made a new counter. New kitchen equipment, including a charcoal broiler, was purchased. The result is an almost all "new" restaurant from floor covering to tables to charcoal broiler.

The walls are covered with palm leaf matting and mahogany paneling. Picture scenes of Cypress Gardens, the Oregon coastline and winter snow in the Rockies decorate three walls.

Charcoal broiled steaks—T-bone, sirloin and butt—and chops—lamb and pork, are features in addition to chicken at Mary's.

An 80th birthday party for Guy Hughes was celebrated here recently by some 48 friends and family members.

No Agreements About LV Stop in Lehman - Soo Line Old Deed

Nothing is contained in the old Lehman deed to the Soo Line requiring stops of trains at Lake Villa, village board members heard at the board meeting last week.

THE DEED, dating back to the 1890's, has been searched by Trustee Anthony Sciacero, and proved fruitless. The search was made recently after the Soo Line got permission to eliminate all stops at Lake Villa, leaving only Antioch with a stop in this area.

Bernard Juron, village attorney, noted that even if such a restriction was made in the deed, it would be invalid now due to later Interstate Commerce Commission rules.

Mrs. Silverhorn Ends Florida Visit

Salem Drops Final Game
Of Year, 59-48, In Tourney

A well coached quintet from Badger High School, Lake Geneva, dumped the Salem Falcons 59-48 in the consolation round of the Wisconsin State sub-regional tournament at Salem High School Friday night. Thus Salem completed the basketball year after having been dropped from state tourney play the night before by Elkhorn.

Neither Badger nor Salem could find the basket throughout the first quarter. Bad passes by Salem and fouls by the Badgers kept the score even as the quarter ended 12 to 11, Salem leading.

AT THE START of the second quarter it looked as if it would be a repetition of the first but midway in the period, Jack Arnold of the Badgers began hitting with a jump shot from the corner. The boys from Lake Geneva out-pointed the Falcons in the second set to take the lead 29 to 25.

In the third quarter the Falcons had trouble getting their shots away. Jack Arnold and Ron Nelson, of the Badgers, both over 6' 2" continually blocked attempts by the Falcons to score.

With 2:05 left in the period, the Falcons stiffened their defense and matched them point for point to the end of the quarter. The Badgers had increased their lead by this time to nine points and the quarter ended 48 to 38.

Cage Season Closes With
Exhibition At Salem Gym

The Kenosha County All-Stars, will play the Harry Houdini's showman basketball team from Seattle, Wash., on Saturday, March 21, at the Salem Central High School gym. It will be the last basketball game of the season in this area.

Spectators will view an amazing exhibition of ball handling and comedy. The Central High School Community Club sponsors the event. All proceeds are for scholarships and awards for students at Central. Pre-sale admissions are $1 for adults and 50 cents for pupils. Gate admissions will be $1.25 and 75 cents.

THIS IS THE first mid-west tour of Harry Houdini's West Coast Basketball club, which has been the sensation of the Northwest and has broken attendance records for this type of ball. It has become a legend because of its showmanship, comedy talent and crowd appeal.

Basketball fans who are accustomed to seeing straight basketball are first shocked, then thrilled, when the Houdini's trot out onto the floor for their intricate warm up drill. This fabulous showmanship basketball team is loaded with talent and puts on a basketball show unequalled in the country today.

The team is led by Marry McLaughlin, 6' 4" center. Harry played college ball at Pacific Lutheran College in Tacoma, Wash., where he broke the long standing All American Hank Luisetti's West Coast scoring record. Harry is Sioux Indian and one of the greatest ball handlers and showmen of all times. As an added half time feature, Harry spins 6 basketballs, plus doing numerous other tricks with the ball. He offers $1,000 in prizes to anyone who can duplicate his many feats.

THE COUNTY All-Stars, consisting of many of Central's graduates, are Vince Getka, f; Ken Norfleet, f; Dick Kadolph, f; Dean Schultz, f; Jim Tirabassi, g; Marty Weidner, g; Le Roy Smith, g; Ronnie Nelson, g; Ray Lubkeman, g; Dave Selgert, c; and Dick Muhlenbeck, manager.

Many ticket outlets have been established to accommodate the spectators. Central High School has advance tickets on sale.

In Salem tickets are available at Nick's Salem Service Station, Feldkamp Town Tap and Grill, and Weidman Grocery.

Medicine Increasing
Number of Deaf,
But That's Good Sign

Modern medicine is increasing the number of deaf persons, says Kenneth Huff, superintendent of the Wisconsin School for the deaf.

That's not an indictment of medicine but a vote in its favor.

THROUGH MODERN science, doctors have successfully eliminated some causes of deafness due to illness or accident, but they are increasing the number born with deafness. This because many who would not otherwise survive are doing so but must go through life with that handicap, Huff says.

He made the statement at an interview while attending the sub-district basketball tourney at Wilmot last week.

Cage Outlook:
Good Talent
Coming To HS

Not next year, but two years from now the Antioch High School can expect to be "loaded" with top basketball talent from the Antioch Grade School.

Next year's grade school contribution to the freshman class will be short in height says Richard Whitacre, principal, but the following two years the boys will have height and talent.

WHITACRE BASES his prediction on the showing of the young cagers in intramural and outside games. He notes that his school system is attempting to rebuild interest in the cage sport with a stepped up program of interschool competition.

A continued high level of intramural activity is being supplemented with games with other schools. A game a week was held this year.

However, besides being drilled in game tactics, the basic job of the grade school is to teach fundamentals in athletics and school work, Whitacre says.

MEANWHILE AT the high school where Coach Stuart Good completed a puzzling year heading the Sophomore team, a welcome will be

Racing Report at Meet
Of Chain O'Lakes Club

First report of the racing season will be given to members of the Chain O' Lakes Boat Club at the next meeting Saturday at 8:30 p.m. at the Waltonian Hotel at Fox Lake.

A BOARD of directors meeting will precede the regular conference says Ted Hellin, secretary.

Commodore of the club is Frank (Babe) Ambacher, Lake Villa, and treasurer is Tracy Hill, Rt. 1, Antioch. Lou Portalski, Antioch, and George Kay and Joseph Moulis, Fox Lake, are on the board of directors.

made to all talented youngsters. He will be attempting to make athletes out of the boys.

Good says that usually kids coming into the high school are "about three years behind" most others in the conference in ability because they do not learn enough fundamentals in the grades. Basketball is the hardest hit sport, football is not so bad because all teams in the league have the same situation.

All the previous training a boy can get in athletics helps in high school competition, Good says. He claims that an apparent letdown in fundamental training in the past few years in the grades has hurt beginning high school athletics. But he is assured that Antioch Grade School system will be feeding top flight boys in the next two years.

Coach Mulls Why Soph
Quint Stalled At Season End

With the pressure of play off, Coach Stuart Good of Antioch's Frosh-Soph cage team has time to figure out what caused the demise of his team at the end of the season.

He has come up with four points which he feels is responsible for the almost complete reversal of form of his youthful cagers.

FIRST, THE loss of Chuck Schuth who moved to the varsity at mid-year caused a loss of steadying effect the guard had on the team. Never a high scorer (he got 26 for the year), Schuth was a ball handler and feeder whose loss was felt severely by the team.

Dissension ripped the club in the final month, the coach said. "Several players were dropped and quit during the year because of school attendance problems and training problems," he noted. The boys just wouldn't take basketball seriously, causing a squad turnover which was not normal.

LOSS OF Brian Elliott with a leg injury with four games to go in the year was a factor also in the collapse of the team in some final games. Warren mauled the little Sequoits 61-27 in the final tilt. Elliott was the leading rebounder before his injury. The records show he had 25 offensive rebounds, 68 defensive balls.

A lack of bench strength contributed also to the team's downfall, Good said. There were only about six players on the real squad all year and they were forced to play ball too cautiously.

The squad started the season like champions, compiling an 8-1 record by the New Year. At the end of January the score stood at 10-3 and the young Sequoits were tied for lead in the conference.

BUT IN FEBRUARY and March, disaster struck and the young braves could not buy a win. The season ended at 11-9.

And in the conference, the team was 9-5 and tied for second. Not a bad record but not at all good for a year which started so good.

A look at the season totals of the team shows that Les Herbst and Ed Martin seemed to carry the squad in scoring and rebounding. This factor also may have been somewhat detrimental to good team play, Good says, but the two sophomores were outstanding players and played up to their capabilities.

The scoring for the season:

Player	Points	Average
Les Herbst	311	16
Ed Martin	262	13
Brian Elliott	86	4.5
Chuck Schuth	26
Deb Sheehan	47
Bryan Palenski	20
Lance Keisler	10
Team	817	41

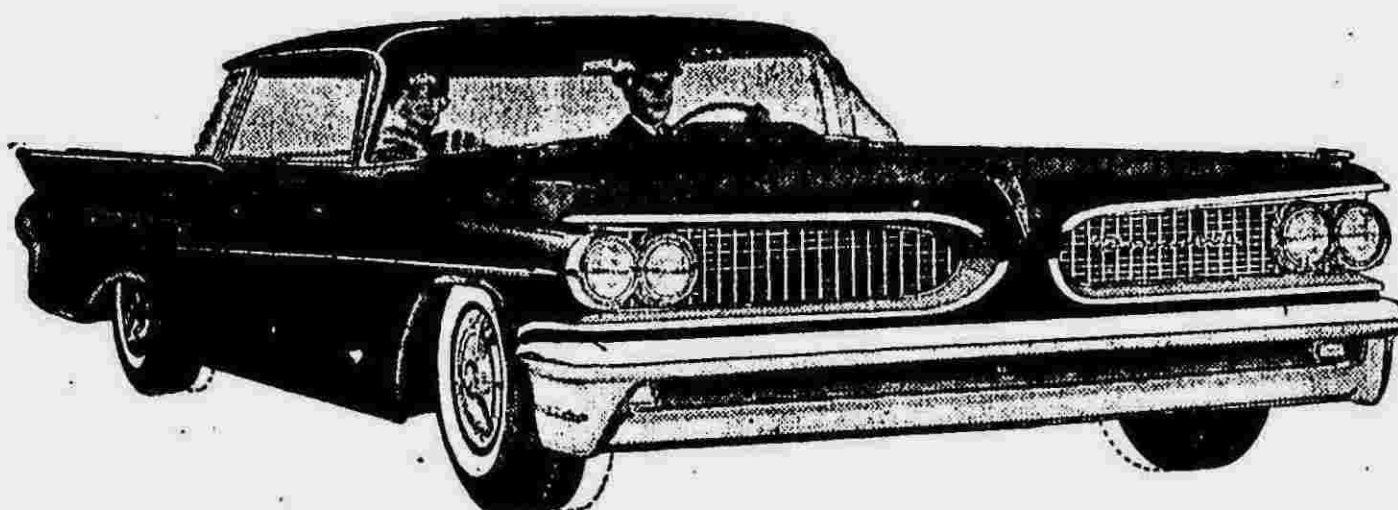

The squad hit at a 41 per cent clip from the field and made about half its field goal tries for a 51 per cent average.

Summer Cottons Feature Of New Dress Shop Opening Today Here

A new dress shop featuring all summer apparel in light cotton lines will open here today at 845 Main St.

The independent store is Lucille's Cotton Shop, owned by Lucille D'Abaldo, 150 Oakwood Dr., who has a background with Sears merchandising and more recently has been employed by Jewel Tea Co. The D'Abaldo's have lived in Antioch four years.

THE STORE has undergone extensive remodeling since Feb. 1 and will open with representative selections of the lines to be carried, Mrs. D'Abaldo says. All stocks have not been shipped yet but should be here within the next month. At that time a grand opening will be held, she said.

For this weekend opening, the shop will feature a housecoat special, advertised elsewhere in today's Antioch News.

'New' Restaurant Sets Opening On Weekend

Antioch has a "new" restaurant this weekend—Mary's Restaurant, at 914 Main St.

And to celebrate her official opening Friday and Saturday, March 13-14, of the "new" restaurant owner Mary Topercer is serving a special: A Prime Rib complete dinner giving a free loaf of home made bread to every person purchasing a dinner on those dates.

DURING THE PAST few weeks carpenter Cal Harden refinished the entire interior of the restaurant. The Flexotile Co. of Kenosha laid a new floor and Lakes Tile Co. made a new counter. New kitchen equipment, including a charcoal broiler, was purchased. The result is an almost all "new" restaurant from floor covering to tables to charcoal broiler.

The walls are covered with palm leaf matting and mahogany paneling. Picture scenes of Cypress Gardens, the Oregon coastline and winter snow in the Rockies decorate three walls.

Charcoal broiled steaks—T-bone, sirloin and butt—and chops—lamb and pork, are features in addition to chicken at Mary's.

No Agreements About LV Stop in Lehman - Soo Line Old Deed

Nothing is contained in the old Lehman deed to the Soo Line requiring stops of trains at Lake Villa, village board members heard at the board meeting last week.

THE DEED, dating back to the 1890's, has been searched by Trustee Anthony Sciandro, and proved fruitless. The search was made recently after the Soo Line got permission to eliminate all stops at Lake Villa, leaving only Antioch with a stop in this area.

Bernard Juron, village attorney, noted that even if such a restriction was made in the deed, it would be invalid now due to later Interstate Commerce Commission rules.

Mrs. Silverhorn Ends Florida Visit

Mrs. Arthur J. Silverhorn of Deering Lane, Route 1, Lake Villa, was a recent visitor at Florida's Silver Springs. She returned home Mar. 6.

Salem Drops Final Game
Of Year, 59-48, In Tourney

A well coached quintet from Badger High School, Lake Geneva, dumped the Salem Falcons 59-48 in the consolation round of the Wisconsin State sub-regional tournament at Salem High School Friday night. Thus Salem completed the basketball year after having been dropped from state tourney play the night before by Elkhorn.

Neither Badger nor Salem could find the basket throughout the first quarter. Bad-passes by Salem and fouls by the Badgers kept the score even as the quarter ended 12 to 11, Salem leading.

AT THE START of the second quarter it looked as if it would be a repetition of the first but midway in the period, Jack Arnold of the Badgers began hitting with a jump shot from the corner. The boys from Lake Geneva out-pointed the Falcons in the second set to take the lead 29 to 25.

In the third quarter the Falcons had trouble getting their shots away. Jack Arnold and Ron Nelson, of the Badgers, both over 6' 2" continually blocked attempts by the Falcons to score.

With 2:05 left in the period, the Falcons stiffened their defense and matched them point for point to the end of the quarter. The Badgers had increased their lead by this time to nine points and the quarter ended 59-48.

Cage Season Closes With
Exhibition At Salem Gym

The Kenosha County All-Stars will play the Harry Houdini's showman basketball team from Seattle, Wash., on Saturday, March 21, at the Salem Central High School gym. It will be the last basketball game of the season in this area.

Spectators will view an amazing exhibition of ball handling and comedy. The Central High School Community Club sponsors the event. All proceeds are for scholarships and awards for students at Central. Pre-sale admissions are $1 for adults and 50 cents for pupils. Gate admissions will be $1.25 and 75 cents.

THIS IS THE first mid-west tour of Harry Houdini's West Coast Basketball club, which has been the sensation of the Northwest and has broken attendance records for this type of ball. It has become a legend because of its showmanship, comedy talent and crowd appeal.

Basketball fans who are accustomed to seeing straight basketball are first shocked, then thrilled, when the Houdini's trot out onto the floor for their intricate warm up drill. This fabulous showmanship basketball team is loaded with talent and puts on a basketball show unequalled in the country today.

The team is led by Marry McLaughlin, 6' 4" center. Harry played college ball at Pacific Lutheran College in Tacoma, Wash., where he broke the long standing All American Hank Luisetti's West Coast scoring record. Harry is Sioux Indian and one of the greatest ball handlers and showmen of all times. As an added half time feature, Harry spins 6 basketballs, plus doing numerous other tricks with the ball.

He offers $1,000 in prizes to anyone who can duplicate his many feats.

Medicine Increasing
Number of Deaf,
But That's Good Sign

Modern medicine is increasing the number of deaf persons, says Kenneth Huff, superintendent of the Wisconsin School for the deaf.

That's not an indictment of medicine but a vote in its favor.

THROUGH MODERN science, doctors have successfully eliminated some causes of deafness due to illness or accident, but they are increasing the number born with deafness. This because many who would not otherwise survive are doing so but must go through life with that handicap, Huff says.

He made the statement at an interview while attending the sub-district basketball tourney at Wilmet last week.

Cage Outlook:
Good Talent
Coming To HS

Not next year, but two years from now the Antioch High School can expect to be "loaded" with top basketball talent from the Antioch Grade School.

Next year's grade school contribution to the freshman class will be short in height says Richard Whitacre, principal, but the following two years the boys will have height and talent.

WHITACRE BASES his prediction on the showing of the young cagers in intramural and outside games. He notes that his school system is attempting to rebuild interest in the cage sport with a stepped up program of interschool competition.

A continued high level of intramural activity is being supplemented with games with other schools. A game a week was held this year.

However, besides being drilled in game tactics, the basic job of the grade school is to teach fundamentals in athletics and school work, Whitacre says.

MEANWHILE AT the high school where Coach Stuart Good completed a puzzling year heading the Sophomore team, a welcome will be made to all talented youngsters. "He will be attempting to make athletes out of the boys."

First report of the racing season will be given to members of the Chain O'Lakes Boat Club at the next meeting Saturday at 8:30 p.m. at the Waltonian Hotel at Fox Lake.

A BOARD of directors meeting will precede the regular conference says Ted Helin, secretary.

Good says that usually kids coming into the high school are "about three years behind" most others in the conference in ability because they do not learn enough fundamentals in the grades. Basketball is the hardest hit sport, football is not so bad because all teams in the league have the same situation.

All the previous training a boy can get in athletics helps in high school competition, Good says. He claims that an apparent letdown in fundamental training in the past few years in the grades has hurt beginning high school athletics. But he is assured that Antioch Grade School system will be feeding top flight boys in the next two years.

Coach Mulls Why Soph
Quint Stalled At Season End

With the pressure of play off, Coach Stuart Good of Antioch's Frosh-Soph cage team has time to figure out what caused the demise of his team at the end of the season.

He has come up with four points which he feels is responsible for the almost complete reversal of form of his youthful cagers.

FIRST, THE loss of Chuck Schuth who moved to the varsity at mid-year caused a loss of steadying effect the guard had on the team. Never a high scorer (he got 26 for the year), Schuth was a ball handler and feeder whose loss was felt severely by the team.

Dissension ripped the club in the final month, the coach said. "Several players were dropped and quit during the year because of school attendance problems and training problems," he noted. The boys just wouldn't take basketball seriously, causing a squad turnover which was not normal.

LOSS OF Brian Elliott with a leg injury with four games to go in the year was a factor also in the collapse of the team in some final games. Warren mauled the little Sequoits 61-27 in the final tilt. Elliott was the leading rebounder before his injury. The records show he had 25 offensive rebounds, 68 defensive balls.

A lack of bench strength contributed also to the team's downfall, Good said. There were only about six players on the real squad all year and they were forced to play ball too cautiously.

The squad started the season like champions, compiling an 8-1 record by the New Year. At the end of January the score stood at 10-3 and the young Sequoits were tied for lead in the conference.

BUT IN FEBRUARY and March, disaster struck and the young braves could not buy a win. The season ended at 11-9.

And in the conference, the team was 9-5 and tied for second. Not a bad record but not at all good for a year which started so good.

A look at the season totals of the team shows that Les Herbst and Ed Martin seemed to carry the squad in scoring and rebounding. This factor also may have been somewhat detrimental to good team play, Good says, but the two sophomores were outstanding players and played up to their capabilities.

The scoring for the season:

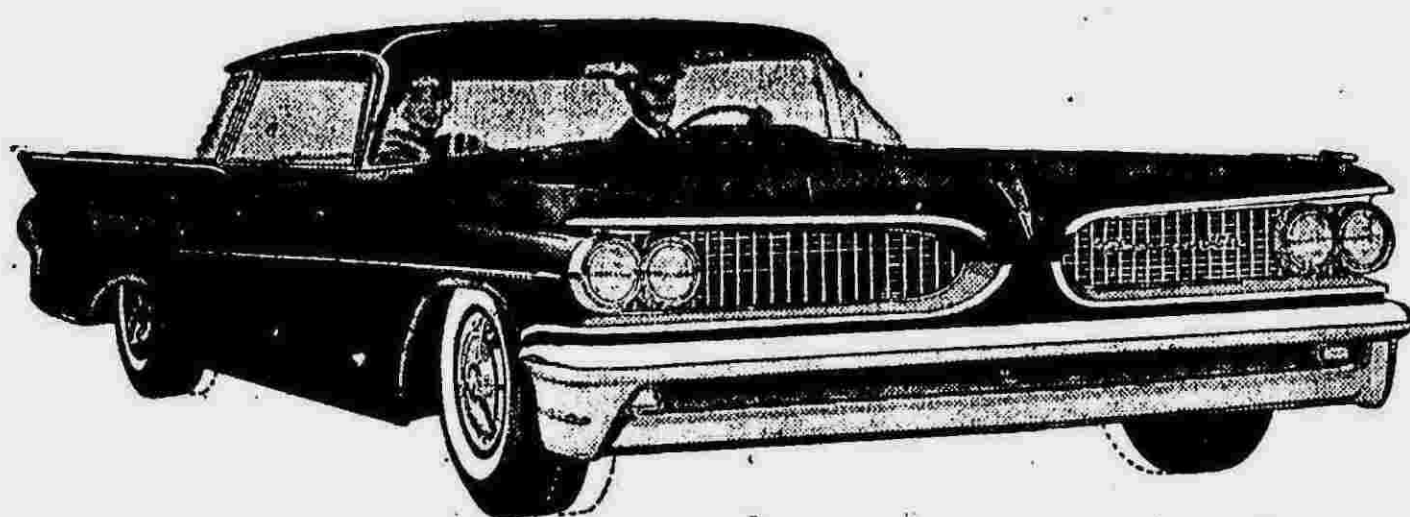

Player	Points	Average
Les Herbst	311	16
Ed Martin	262	13
Brian Elliott	86	4.5
Chuck Schuth	26
Deb Sheehan	47
Bryan Palenski	20
Lance Keisler	10
Team	817	41

The squad hit at a 41 per cent clip from the field and made about half its field goal tries for a 51 per cent average.

Magazine Cites Chicago's Lack Of Boat Docks

With 25 miles of park-lined lakefront, eight harbors and a river that flows backward, Chicago is far and away the pleasure boating mecca of the Midwest, according to the March issue of the magazine Popular Boating.

In a feature article, the magazine points out the delights of sailing on Chicago's lakefront. Another unique advantage of Chicago boating is the fact that it's virtually free of danger—with only one 4-foot shoal in a range of 25 miles!

WITH ALL THESE attributes, however, Chicago is beset with one big problem: insufficient facilities. According to Popular Boating, there are simply not enough moorings for the growing number of Chicago boatmen. As it is, eight harbors (all man-made) provide for only 1,800 craft. And enthusiasm for boating runs so high in Chicago that there is the amazing total of 108,000 outboards alone in the metropolitan area!

As a result, Chicago boats are to be found based as far away as Waukegan or even across the lake. However, Popular Boating reports that the city's yacht clubs do find a temporarily-vacant buoy or dock space to accommodate visitors from another club. And at present, a Chicago port engineer is negotiating with other communities for boat facilities.

Blanket Game More Popular Than Baseball in Alaska

Americans have carried baseball into many parts of the world, but they may be stopped at the door of the 49th state.

The Eskimos have their own favorite sport—blanket-tossing.

The World Book Encyclopedia reports, in its new section on Alaska, that the Eskimos stretch a large walrus hide or a blanket three or four feet above the ground.

HOLDING ON TO the edge of the blanket by special handgrips, about 20 or 30 Eskimos toss the players into the air, as high as 15 or 20 feet at each throw.

The player who can bounce the highest and keep landing on his feet is the winner.

For Alaskans who prefer less strenuous pastimes, the "Ice Pool" contest is a favorite.

The contest is held at Nenana in April or May. The winner is the person who comes closest to guessing when the ice breaks up in the Nenana River.

RC First Aid Network Forming In Lake County

The names of thirty Lake County residents including six from this area, to form a nucleus of what is expected to be a country-wide network of emergency first aid sources, were released by the Lake County chapter of the American Red Cross.

These individuals operate chapter mobile units. In addition, six organizational mobile first aid units were named.

A CHAPTER MOBILE unit consists of one person who carries first aid equipment in his private automobile, while an organizational unit is composed of three or more first aid equipped vehicles owned by an organization, or municipal, county or state government.

Mobile unit operators are carefully selected by the Lake County Red Cross first aid committee. They must be at least 21 years of age and possess a currently valid advanced or instructor certificate in Red Cross first aid.

THE MOBILE emergency first aid unit program of the Lake County Red Cross is an integral part of a highway safety plan, which is designed to provide first aid to the injured on the highways and to help reduce traffic accidents.

Vehicles of mobile first aid operators are identifiable by a metal plate on the rear of the car and/or windshield decal, both of which read: AMERICAN RED CROSS—EMERGENCY FIRST AID.

In addition to their responsibility to render first aid in any situation where it is needed, members of the Lake County Red Cross mobile units are on call in the event of a disaster occurring anywhere in the county.

Names of first aiders are:
Antioch: William Baneft, Rt. 4, Box 254.

Ingleside: Harold Busch, Box 256, Rt. 2; Clarence Sutton, E. Spring Rd., and R. Modloff, Box 751, Rt. 2, Lake Villa; William Thompson, Rt. No. 1, Grand Ave.

Spring Grove: F. Marchetti, Lotus Woods, and John Kreft, Karen Ct.

The original purpose of coloring Easter eggs probably was to imitate the bright colors of spring. When the Christians adopted the custom, eggs were decorated primarily in red, to symbolize the blood of Christ.

Looking for Foster Homes for Vets Being Released from VA Hospital

The Veterans Administration Hospital, Downey, is in need of homes for veteran patients who are ready to return to the community but have no suitable homes of their own to which they might return.

Many veterans hospitalized at Downey have no families of their own. In some instances, the patient's family is unable to provide a suitable home situation. The hospital is helping these patients to return to the community through its Home Care Program, by placing them in "foster homes."

THESE VETERANS are both male and female and range in age from their early 20's to 70 years. Some will be able to obtain employment and again become productive members of society. Others will not be able to work and their activities will be similar to that of a person who has retired. The veterans who are considered for this program receive thorough evaluations by the medical staff and are now considered fully able to return to the community.

Since these veterans receive such thorough physical and psychological study, foster parents can feel much more secure with them than they might with the average stranger to whom they might rent a room and know little or nothing about.

The many families who have participated in the VA Home Care Program in this area and other areas throughout the country have found it to be a very rewarding experience. Few experiences are as deeply satisfying as those in which we assist in the rehabilitation of another person.

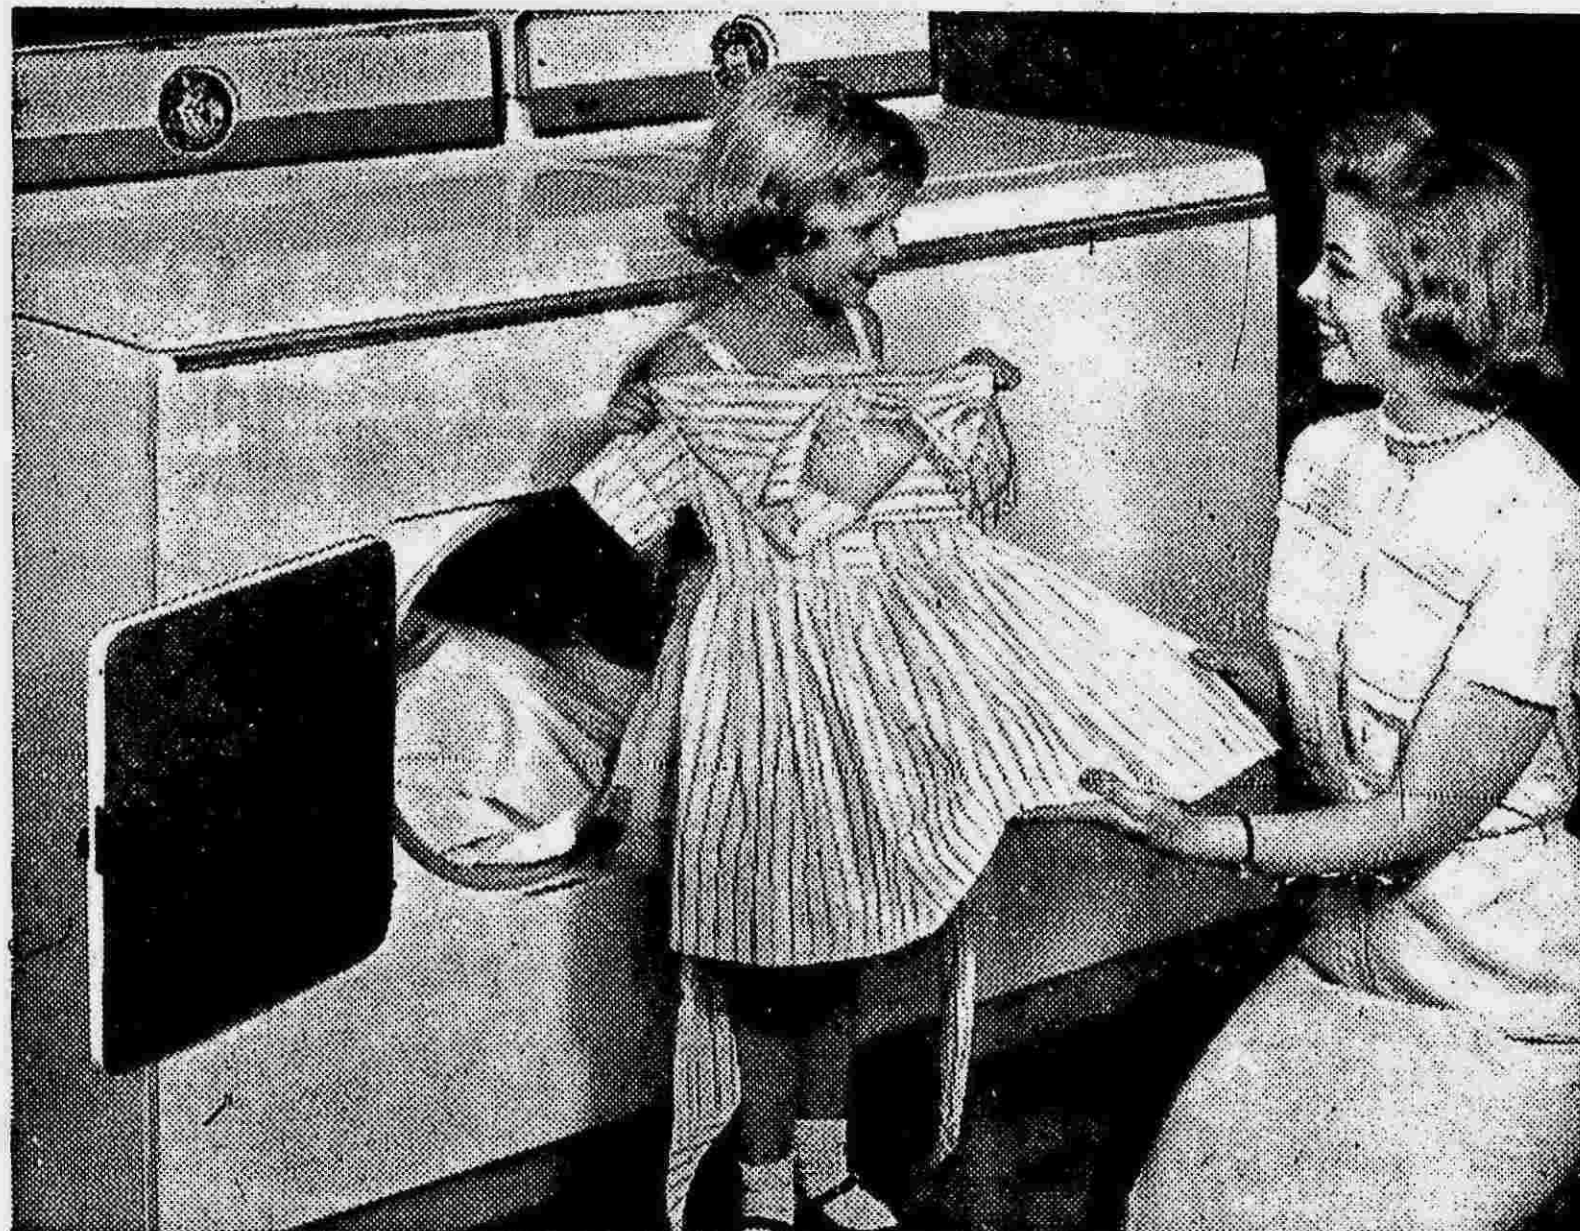

THE TYPE OF home desired is one wherein the veteran not only receives room and board but also receives the warmth, acceptance, understanding, and encouragement which is a part of family living. While the veteran pays for the cost of his room and board, these arrangements are made through the hospital.

Throughout the period of the veteran's stay in his foster home, both he and the foster parent receive continuing assistance from the hospital through its Social Work Service.

Anyone who is interested, or thinks he may be interested, in providing a home for a veteran patient is urged to telephone or write to Leo Loh, Chief, Social Work Service, VA Hospital, Downey, Ill. Tel. Ontario 2-1900, Extension 485.

Sen. McClory Charges Assembly With Loafing

By Senator Robert McClory
Members of the Illinois General Assembly are loafing.

The lack of effort and activity on the part of our state senators and representatives should give rise to questions by constituents. More than eight weeks of the six months' session have passed, with little or nothing to show for the time and expense consumed.

SEVERAL OF THE weekly sessions of the Senate have lasted little more than an hour. Many members have traveled more than 200 miles to Springfield only to start back—200 or more miles homeward—after brief sessions of 60 minutes or less. The situation in the House of Representatives has not been much different.

To date, more than 500 bills have been introduced, but no more than five committee hearings have been held in the Senate, and less than 20 bills have been passed. Many of the Senate committees have held no meetings, thus far. Most of the bills passed are deficiency appropriation bills, needed to carry on necessary functions of our state government.

WHAT IS THE cause of all the stalling and delay? Politics may be the answer. And, by "politics" we may well mean partisan politics of the variety little understood by those who are removed from the political scene. Many Chicago and other municipal political leaders, with city primary elections at hand, have been preoccupied with the local political campaigns.

Then, too, there has been a reluctance to "take sides" on any issue for fear of alienating voters in the local contests. Consequently, our 71st Illinois General Assembly has coasted, practically, to a standstill.

But when will the legislative lethargy end? The answer to that query is not hard to find. With the aldermanic run-offs and Chicago (and other cities) mayoralty to be decided only a month hence, we may expect the legislative doldrums to persist for exactly that length of time.

THERE MAY BE spurts of noise and pretenses of great activity. These will be "banned" to the press-boxes for whatever political advantage may be gained. The less spectacular, but more productive, committee work will be taking place after much of the "shouting has ceased." The 80 some Chicago members of the General Assembly will direct much of their attention toward the contest between former Congressman Timothy Shahan and incumbent Richard Daley—for mayor of Chicago—until that race is decided Tuesday, April 7. The next day, Wednesday, April 8, the sordid business of law-making for our 8,000,000 residents will earnestly begin.

Meanwhile, if you are wondering what various legislators are whispering to each other—as they meet in the lobbies and corridors of Springfield—I'll tell you. Chances are they are asking: "When do we get down to work?"

Voters Can See All Candidates' Questionnaires

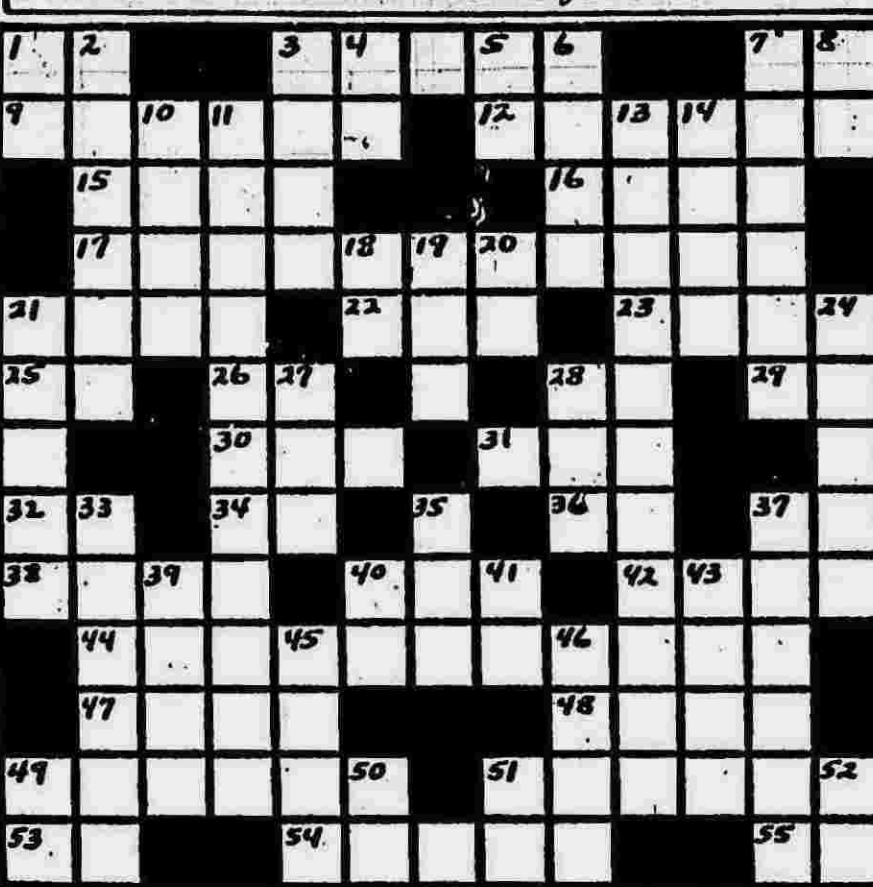

Interested citizens can obtain the answers to the five property questions put to all the candidates for Salem Township supervisor posts, says Richard Nuytens, secretary of the Subdivision Assn.

Five of the seven candidates answered the questions by letter, and incumbent John W. Schnurr, Willmot, presented his views in person at the monthly meeting of the association Sunday.

THE QUESTIONS were asked purely as a means of securing information about the thinking of the candidates on some property problems, Nuytens said. The answers will not be made public but will be kept on file and open to any citizen who wishes to read candidates' views.

The association does not plan to make any political use of the answers, Nuytens stressed, as it is not interested in politics and asked the questions after urging by members.

Last week-end Mr. and Mrs. Sam Guard attended a dance given by the SAC Club of Chicago, which was held in Tuscany Hall, Elmwood Park. The spring thaw over the week end also brought them company in the persons of their mother and dad, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Locicern, who came out for the first time since winter set in.

Mrs. Catherine Schaefer, of Schaefer's Resort, Petite Lake, is off to Los Angeles for an indefinite time, to visit her sister. She also plans to take a trip into Mexico while there.

The Anthony Lomma family attended a friend's wedding and reception in Chicago last Sunday. It was a small wedding, but the food at the reception was described by Mrs. Lomma as being out of this world.

Everyone around Petite Lake is getting a kick out of Mrs. Alice Johnson driving around in her 1938 tri-color Plymouth. It is really a classic antique, but it gets her where she wants to go.

HS Students Can Try For Health Scholarship

A new scholarship program has been available to graduating seniors at Antioch Township High School who wish to become nurses, physical therapists or occupational therapists. The awards pay from $500 to $2,000 says Frank Denison, guidance counselor at the school.

This is the first time in history that this type of scholarship program has been offered to high school students, Denison said. It is offered by the National Foundation and is financed through the March of Dimes.

3 File for AHS Board Posts

Three persons have filed for the three Antioch Township High School board posts which expire this year. Incumbents Ruth Seyfarth and Arthur Seckatz are seeking to be re-elected to their posts and Dr. Richard Ripley has filed for the post being vacated by Dr. Richard Carlucci who has announced his intention not to seek the post again.

ARE Reasons

why an RCA Victor TV from FRANK'S should be in YOUR home

Here is WHY

RCA Victor TV styling adds beauty to any surrounding — beauty that lasts. Every model features clean, compact cabinetry. You can get a set to fit your decor — contemporary, modern, lowboy, or French Provincial. And you get to choose from eight different woods, eight other finishes. Your range of selection is wide enough so you get exactly what you like.

You get a picture with sharper, more pleasing contrasts because of a tinted safety window, a clear cut sharpening of focus.

You get FM sound from three speakers, perfectly balanced, acoustically correct. One large "woofer" reproduces low and middle ranges, two higher frequency speakers capture for you the higher ranges. You get a sound that is full of life—a sound developed over many years of experience and research.

In RCA Victor sets you actually get the value you expect. Why? Because the new tube-saving power surge resistor adds life to the set, because tubes receive intensive performance and quality checks, because every component in every RCA Victor TV set must pass the most vigorous quality tests in the industry — every component in every set is designed and tested by RCA, because the Elmo Roper Organization, a research firm, recently showed that RCA Victor TV owners spent less money on repairs than owners of any other brand.

At FRANK'S TV you get ONE year of FREE service — dependable, prompt and courteous — with every new RCA Victor TV purchased off our floor at 950 Main Street in Antioch.

Dahlman Elected MVP Of '58-59 Sequoit Cage Squad

Junior Jerry Dahlman has been elected most valuable player on the Antioch High school basketball team and Paul Magiera named captain for the year.

Dahlman led the team in scoring this year and was most improved player on the floor says his coach, Larry Leon.

THE SQUAD could compile only a 5-18 record but about eight games in the latter half of the season "could have gone either way." Several few point margins marked the spirited play of the Sequoits who were winless until January.

Leon said he was "happy" with the team, not the win-loss record but because the kids surprised many and produced well for their experience and potential. "The town should be proud," he said as he closed up the locker room for the year.

Looking to next year, Leon will lose only two seniors, one being starter Paul Magiera. The rest of

Women GOP Club Invites Residents To Hear Army Secretary Talk

Mrs. William J. Murphy and Mrs. W. C. Petty, local members of the Women's Republican Club of the 13th Congressional District, extend an invitation to all Antioch and surrounding area residents to hear Wilber M. Brucker, army secretary, talk on problems of National Defense at the Haven School in Evanston Friday, March 20, 8 p.m. The school is on Green Bay Road one block south of Central Street. There is no admission charge.

With so much concern for national defense and with bills before Congress at the present time for continuation of the draft laws, the club feels it could bring no more timely message to the people of the 13th district. Secy. Brucker is a prominent attorney known for his forceful logic and convincing presentation of facts.

HIS SERVICE for the country dates to 1915, when he enlisted in the Michigan National Guard, with active duty on the Mexican border in 1916 and 1917. In World War I, as an officer in the famous Rainbow Division, he participated in all its battles in France and was awarded the Silver Star for bravery under fire.

Lake County Republican Chairman Bob Milton and Evanston Chairman Bill Erickson are so enthusiastic over Secretary Brucker's coming that they have sent out notices urging all precinct workers to attend. Interest has also been expressed by all veterans' groups.

MUSIC WILL be provided by the nationally famous Skokie Drum and Bugle Corps. Colors will be posted by the Evanston American Legion Post. Top officers from Fort Sheridan and the Fifth Army will be present.

Congresswoman Marguerite Stitt Church will introduce Secy. Brucker and urges all who can possibly do so to take advantage of this unusual opportunity to hear him. "Here in Washington," said Mrs. Church, "I am constantly aware of the respect commanded by Secy. Brucker for his excellent leadership and efficient administration of his official duties. It is no wonder that he is in such great demand as a speaker. We in the 13th District are highly honored and greatly privileged to have him as our guest speaker."

General chairmen of the meeting are the two co-chairmen of the club: Mrs. Horace S. Valle, of Highland Park, for Lake County, and Mrs. Bert K. Murphy, of Evanston, the newly appointed chairman for Cook County.

Interest, Carrying Charges Valid Tax Deductions

Taxpayers may deduct interest payments on personal debts in their federal income tax returns for 1958 if they itemize deductions, director of Internal Revenue for the Chicago District says.

Personal debts covered by this rule, he said, include bank loans and home mortgages.

HE ADDED, however, that taxpayers cannot deduct interest paid on money borrowed to buy tax-exempt securities or single-premium life insurance, nor interest paid on behalf of another person unless the taxpayer was legally liable to pay it.

"You can deduct a portion of so-called 'carrying charges' paid on installment purchases of personal property such as automobiles, television sets, etc., where the interest charges are not separately stated. The deduction allowed is six per cent of the unpaid monthly balance on the installment purchase.

"You compute the average unpaid monthly balance by adding up the unpaid balance at the beginning of each month and dividing the total by 12.

"For example, assume that on July 15, 1958, you bought a television set for $254 plus a carrying charge of $20. Assume you paid $50 down and are paying the balance (starting August 9) at the rate of $14 per month. The portion of the carrying charge deductible as interest for 1958 is computed.

Unpaid balance including carrying charge: Aug. 1, 224.00; Sept. 1, 210.00; Oct. 1, 196.00; Nov. 1, 182.00; Dec. 1, 168.00—Total monthly unpaid balance $980.00. Average monthly unpaid balance $(980 divided by 12)—$81.67; interest deduction (6% of $81.67)—$4.90.

"SOMETIMES MONEY is borrowed on a discount basis. That is, the interest is subtracted in advance and you sign a note for a larger amount than you receive. If you report on the cash basis on your tax return, you may deduct this discount as interest only at the time you pay the note.

"For example, assume that you sign a note for $1,000 but receive only $980. You agree to pay the $1,000 in 10 monthly installments. For income tax purposes, one-tenth of the $40 discount or $4 will be considered paid each time you make a payment on the note. Thus, if you made three payments on the note during 1958, your interest deduction would be $12 (3x$4)."

METALS TALK—

The unprecedented uses now being devised for present-day metals will be outlined next Sunday at 3 p.m. at the Museum of Science and Industry in a lecture by Eugene Carrington, educational director of the Allied Radio Corporation.

The address, entitled "Today's Metals Tomorrow" is the third in the Spring series of weekly science talks in the museum theatre. It will be followed by a question and answer period.

Pay Homage To Blarney in St. Pat Fetes

Chances are the blarney will be as thick as the shamrocks when the Irish honor St. Patrick on March 17.

But the original "blarney" was an Irish chieftain who proved that you can still win even if you lose.

WHEN THE CASTLE of Blarney was besieged by the English, the lord of the manor concluded an armistice with the English commander. According to the research department of The World Book Encyclopedia, he promised to surrender the old homestead to an English garrison in Cork on a certain date.

The Englishman waited politely for the terms of the armistice to be fulfilled . . . and waited . . . and waited.

The Lord of Blarney held him off with promises and flattery, until the commander became the laughing stock of the court of England.

And the name "Blarney," ironically took its place in the "English" language, as a synonym for sweet talk.

Nation Learns of 'Radio-Controlled Reverend' Here

News of Antioch's "Patrolling Parson," the Rev. Edmond Hood, pastor of St. Ignatius' Episcopal Church, and his unique two-way radio system is now known to the nation.

Shortly after two Chicago newspapers carried the story in their magazine sections last month (and sold out in Antioch), the New York Sunday News, largest newspaper in the U. S., carried the story. The Philadelphia Inquirer and a New Jersey newspaper also have informed their readers of Antioch's modern minister.

IT IS ESTIMATED that since the Antioch News carried first word of Rev. Hood's radio installation to its 6,000 readers, more than 24 million readers of other newspapers have seen the story.

A series of more than 50 pictures was taken last fall by a Sunday newspaper syndicate and given out to subscribing newspapers. Rev. Hood expects many more papers will carry the story and pictures within the next year.

THE STORY AND picture of Rev. and Mrs. Hood and their unique communications system was printed in The Antioch News last August. Rev. Hood installed the two-way radio during the summer so that his wife could reach him at great distances to relay calls from parishioners.

At times the system has brought Rev. Hood to hospitals and accidents in time for him to be of great spiritual aid to sick or accident victims.

The system operates under a special license granted by the Federal Communications System.

Clips of the story in other papers have been sent to The Antioch News, most recent being the March 1 edition of the New York Sunday News, sent in by John Dettore, a former resident now at Pottstown, Pa.

voices ranging in age from 9 to 13 years.

THE PROGRAM will feature a chalk talk by Arthur Bolt of Hammond, Ind., and will include special songs by Girl Scouts of the Lake Villa troops. There will also be a small bazaar with items for sale made by the choir members, and refreshments will be served by the Choir Mothers.

Tickets are available from choir members and at the church office, as well as at the door that evening. The general public is cordially invited to come and join in the fun.

Business and You:

Bowling Is Big Business, Automation Next Step

By William D. Bien

Our shop is echoing again the mysterious jargon of the keggers—a word that my friends in the sports department advise is associated with bowling, not beer.

Spanking the planks... mauling the maples... bending the willows... They all mean the same thing—bowling—and they all are synonymous with big business.

The Business Research Corporation reports that the money spent for bowling fees and equipment by 22 million Americans, plus the capital investment of the proprietors, will reach $1 billion this season.

Perhaps it was to be expected, then, that the spokesmen for the industry would begin to get a bit hoity-toity. They say they wish folks would stop talk about bowling alleys; they prefer to have them called bowling lanes.

Whatever the name, growth of the bowling business is evident in every town throughout the nation. New establishments are springing up everywhere to take advantage of the game's new popularity.

The two big manufacturers of automatic machines that replace pin boys report booming sales.

Brunswick-Balke-Collender has a backlog of about 8,000 orders for its $8,100 pinsetters. American Machine & Foundry Company, already has put in more than 40,000 of its leased machines and reports 4,000 new installations a year.

This is progress, all right—but the passing of the pin boys evokes a pang of painful nostalgia.

I remember, as a kid growing up in a small eastern town, going to the bowling alley off Main Street and being given the "privilege" of working for nothing all afternoon and sometimes in the evening when my folks would agree.

The job required nimble footing and a wary eye, as I recall. They were using the small duckpins in those days—asnd more than once I forgot to duck in time after setting the pins in place.

Then, while I'd rub my bruised shins, the bowlers would shout indignantly that I had messed up their score.

Other times, when all 10 frames went smoothly, I'd clamber out in front of the pins at the end and wait hopefully for a dime—even a nickel—that the customers might toss down the alley as a tip.

That's when it was fun. Some days would net a whole dollar's worth of change.

And nowadays, looking at it from the other end of the alley, there's not much satisfaction, somehow, in shouting at a machine. But that's progress.

Here's the pitch on automobile horns, in case you haven't heard.

Mere noise doesn't mean anything these days, according to R. S. Thornburgh, who sets the tone for Buicks.

What you need is, as the French say, more toot sweet.

Thornburgh says he's advanced the tone of Buick horns one full note—from E flat and G to F and A—for "better penetration through road noise."

The auto engineers have been hoist on their own petard, so to speak. In an effort to keep out road noises, they added insulation until, one day, they discovered what they'd done—they'd cooked their own goose and lost the honk!

"The answer," says Thornburgh, "is not more horns or noise. Tests show that the only answer is a higher pitch within the permissible limits of intensity."

What this means, of course, is that now you get better music with your wrecks. It's the latest thing on the automobile hit parade.

Benjamin Franklin was a printer. He took the liberty to learn to print well, first in England and later in the Colonies. He did excellent work even though his equipment looks crude to printers of this modern world. We, like Franklin, do excellent printing. We invite you to have your printing done in our shop.

School Bus Transportation Big Business in State

More than 470,000 Illinois school children are being transported to daily classes in school buses this year.

George T. Wilkins, state superintendent of public instruction, reported 1,403 school districts are participating in the rapidly expanding program.

HE SAID school bus transportation has increased more than fifteen-fold since 1941, the first year the publicly supported system was placed in operation. In that year 445 districts transported 30,419 pupils at a cost of $1,222,345.

Wilkins estimated about $24,500,000 will be expended this year by state and local school districts for school bus transportation.

The state's contribution will amount to approximately $6,500,000 with a balance of $18,000,000 paid by participating school districts.

THE STATE reimburses local districts on the basis of a formula geared to population.

Wilkins said the average annual per capita cost for transporting pupils to and from school on approximately 175 class days amounts to $57.

The number of school buses has increased from 762 in 1941 to more than 9,000 last year.

In addition, operators of more than 500 station wagons and public carriers participate in the program.

Wilkins reported 10,000 bus drivers make daily circuits ranging from 12 to 45 miles. The length of the average route is 32 miles.

Gives Tips for Retiring Businessmen

Businessmen, including self-employed farmers, who are retiring soon can speed up social security payment by having the necessary documents at hand.

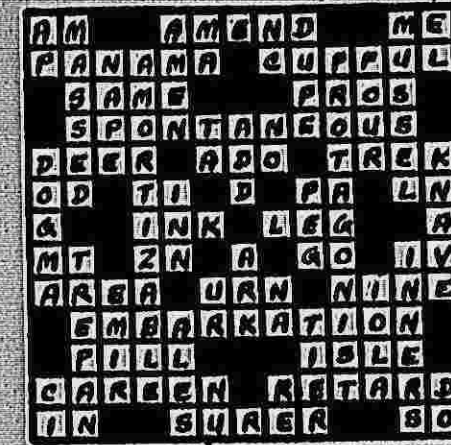

When filing a claim for social security, certain proofs are required, the Social Security office says.

A SELF-EMPLOYED individual should have an extra copy of Income Tax Form 1040, and Schedule C, or F, depending upon his business activity. Where partnership Form 1065 was filed, a copy of that form also will be required. These forms will be kept with his file in the Social Security Administration. Usually forms for only one year are needed—the last one before the year you file a claim for old age benefits. Also be prepared to show your cancelled check, money order receipt, or other evidence showing payment of social security taxes for that year.

volunteers by Virginia Conrad, Chairman of the May rummage sale.

Hostesses for the evening to the 35 women present, were Sis Peters, Teddy Randozzo and Marge Sugden.

The next meeting will be at the Community Beach House on Wednesday evening, April 1. Mary Borg, Betty Rebor and Marilyn Ring will act as hostesses.

Set Welcome For Two Millionth Electric User

A pleasant surprise is planned this month for some electricity user in the Chicago area.

Sometime during March the Commonwealth Edison-Public Service Company system expects to welcome its 2,000,000th customer. The milestone will be marked by recognition for the history-making customer.

ALTHOUGH IT will certainly be electrical, any gift will depend on what type of customer becomes the 2,000,000th user. A householder is most likely to be the winner, since about 20 residential customers are normally added to the utility's lines for each new one in commercial, industrial and other categories.

With the addition of its 2,000,000th customer, Edison will become the second utility in the country to record this achievement. The Edison system, which serves Chicago and most of the northern part of Illinois, began this year with 1,990,700 customers.

THE DOUBLING of Edison system customers has been 34 years in the making, for the 1,000,000th was added in 1925.

The system's generating capacity in 1925 was about 1,000,000 kilowatts. It is now approaching 5,000,000 kilowatts.

In 1925, the average householder served by Edison was using about 500 kilowatt-hours a year. Today he is using about five and one-half times as much.

Applicants to this Institute are selected on evidence of their interest, experience and training in the teaching of physics.
